21 COMES NOW the plaintiff, UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, by and through its counsel, 22 United States Attorney, Karen P. Hewitt, and Assistant U.S. Attorney Rebecca S. Kanter, and hereby 23 files its Response and Opposition to Defendant's Motions to Dismiss the Indictment Due to 24 Misinstruction of the Grand Jury, Compel Discovery and File Further Motions. This Response and 25 Opposition is based upon the files and records of this case, together with the attached Statement of Facts 26 and Memorandum of Points and Authorities.

ISTATEMENT OF FACTS*A. Defendant's Apprehension

On September 4, 2007, at about 4:00 a.m., Defendant attempted to enter the United States from Mexico near Tecate, California. Defendant was first spotted by a California National Guard Unit operating a mobile infrared scope. Defendant was seen crossing the United States/Mexico boundary and hiding in the brush near Ceti's Hill, which is approximately 2 miles east and 100 yards north of the Tecate, California Port of Entry. Defendant was found lying down in the brush approximately 30 yards south of the Border Road. The Defendant admitted to being a citizen and national of Mexico with no documents to legally remain in the United States. Defendant was transported to the Tecate Processing Center.

B. Defendant's Criminal and Immigration History

Defendant has numerous arrests and convictions in California and Oregon. Defendant's more recent felony criminal history includes but is not limited to a conviction in the United States District Court for the Southern District of California on February 1, 2002, for Illegal Entry in violation of Title 8, United States Code Section 1325. Defendant was sentenced to 24 months in custody by The Honorable Gordon Thompson, Jr.

Prior to that, Defendant was convicted in March, 1997, by the California Superior Court in Santa Clara for Possession of Marijuana for Sale in violation of California Health & Safety Code Section 11359, for which he received a sentence of 2 years imprisonment. Ten years later, in May, 2007, Defendant sustained a conviction in the California Superior Court in Santa Ana for Possession of a Controlled Substance in violation of California Health & Safety Code Section 11377(a).

Defendant appeared before an Immigration Judge for a deportation hearing on November 20, 2005, and was physically removed from the United States to Mexico that same day. Defendant was most recently physically removed to Mexico on August 22, 2007, approximately two weeks before the instant offense.

1 C. Defendant's Post-Miranda Confession

2 Defendant was read his Miranda rights and advised of his right to notify the Mexican Consulate.
 3 Defendant waived his rights and admitted that he is a citizen and national of Mexico with no documents
 4 to legally enter or remain in the United States. He further admitted to having been previously deported 5 from the United States. He stated that he knew he was breaking the law by crossing into the United 6 States through the mountains. He admitted to prior arrests and a prior drug conviction. He stated he 7 was en route to Santa Ana, California to find work.

9 DEFENDANT'S MOTIONS TO COMPEL DISCOVERY

10 On September 21, 2007, the Government produced, and Defendant's prior attorney, Erick 11 Guzman, picked up 46 pages of discovery and one DVD for Defendant which included the reports from 12 the Border Patrol Agents, summaries of the statements made by Defendant, documentation regarding 13 Defendant's criminal history and conviction documents, and a recording of his post-Miranda confession.

14
 15 (A) Defendant's Statements

16 The Government recognizes its obligation, under Rules 16(a)(1)(A) and 16(a)(1)(B), to provide 17 to Defendant the substance of Defendant's oral statements and written statements. (Unless otherwise 18 noted, all references to "Rules" refers to the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure.) The Government 19 will produce all of the Defendant's statements that are known to the undersigned Assistant U.S.
 20 Attorney at this date. If the Government discovers additional oral or written statements that require 21 disclosure under Rule 16(a)(1)(A) or Rule 16(a)(1)(B), such statements will be promptly provided.

22 (B) Defendant's Prior Record, Prior Bad Acts, and Notice Under FRE 404(b)

23 The Government has already provided Defendant with documentation regarding his prior 24 criminal record, including judgment and conviction documents, and has thereby fulfilled its duty of 25 discovery under Rule 16(a)(1)(D).^{1/} See United States v. Audelo-Sanchez, 923 F.2d 129 (9th Cir. 1990).

26
 28 ^{1/} Defendant requests evidence of his prior record pursuant to Rule 16(a)(1)(B). The Government interprets this as a request pursuant to Rule 16(a)(1)(D), which is the section of the discovery rule pertaining to a defendant's prior record.

1 To the extent that the Government determines that there are any additional documents reflecting 2 Defendant's prior criminal record, the Government will provide those to Defendant.

3 The Government will disclose in advance of trial the general nature of any "other bad acts"
 4 evidence that the United States intends to introduce at trial pursuant to Fed. R. Evid. 404(b). Evidence
 5 should not be treated as "other bad acts" evidence under Fed. R. Evid. 404(b) when the evidence 6 concerning the other bad acts and the evidence concerning the crime charged are "inextricably 7 intertwined." United States v. Soliman, 812 F.2d 277, 279 (9th Cir. 1987).

8 (C) Other Documents and Physical Objects

9 The Government has complied and will continue to comply with Rule 16(a)(1)(E)^{2/} in allowing 10 Defendant an opportunity, upon reasonable notice, to examine, inspect, and copy documents and 11 physical objects that are within its possession, custody, or control, and that is either material to the 12 preparation of Defendant's defense, or is intended for use by the Government as evidence during its 13 case-in-chief at trial, or was obtained from or belongs to Defendant. The Government need not, 14 however, produce rebuttal evidence in advance of trial. United States v. Givens, 767 F.2d 574, 584 (9th 15 Cir. 1984).

16 (D) Scientific Tests or Examinations

17 At this time, the Government is not aware of any scientific tests or examinations performed in 18 connection with this case. If the Government becomes aware of such evidence, the results of any 19 scientific tests or examinations will be provided to Defendant in accordance with Rule 16(a)(1)(F)^{3/} 20 when those tests results are received.

21 (E) Witness Discovery

22 Defendant is not entitled to any evidence that a prospective witness is under criminal 23 investigation by federal, state, or local authorities. The Government is under no obligation to turn over 24

25 ^{2/} Defendant makes this request under Fed. R. Crim. P. 16(a)(2)(C). Because there is no 26 such subsection in Rule 16, the Government interprets this as a request under Rule 16(a)(1)(E) which 27 applies to the discovery of documents and objects.

28 ^{3/} Defendant requests reports of scientific tests or examination pursuant to Rule 16(a)(1)(D). Because that subsection refers to Defendant's Prior Record, the Government interprets this as a request pursuant to Rule 16(a)(1)(F) which pertains to Reports of Examinations and Tests.

1 the criminal records or rap sheet of its potential witnesses. United States v. Taylor, 542 F.2d 1023, 1026
2 (8th Cir. 1976). The Government will, however, provide the conviction record, if any, which could be 3 used to impeach witnesses the United States intends to call in its case-in-chief.

4 The Government recognizes its obligation under Brady and Giglio to provide material evidence 5 that could be used to impeach Government witnesses, including material information related to 6 perception, recollection, ability to communicate, or truth telling. The Government strenuously objects 7 to providing any evidence that a witness has ever used narcotics or other controlled substance, or has 8 ever been an alcoholic because such information is not discoverable under Rule 16, Brady, Giglio, 9 Henthorn, or any other Constitutional or statutory disclosure provision.

10 The Government similarly recognizes its obligation under Brady and Giglio to provide evidence 11 that could be used to impeach Government witnesses including material information regarding 12 demonstrable bias or motive to lie. The Government is not aware of any evidence of any bias or 13 motivation to lie on the part of prospective government witnesses. If the Government discovers the 14 existence of information related to a government witness's bias or motive to lie, the information will 15 be provided to the Defendant.

16 The Government has provided Defendant with the reports containing the names, work addresses, 17 and telephone numbers of the inspectors, officers and special agents who asked questions of Defendant 18 and found the marijuana in the vehicle. In its trial memorandum, the Government will provide 19 Defendant with a list of all witnesses whom it intends to call in its case-in-chief, although delivery of 20 such a witness list is not required. See United States v. Discher, 960 F.2d 870 (9th Cir. 1992); United 21 States v. Mills, 810 F.2d 907, 910 (9th Cir. 1987).

22 The Government will comply with United States v. Henthorn, 931 F.2d 29 (9th Cir. 1991) and 23 request that all federal agencies involved in the criminal investigation and prosecution review the 24 personnel files of the federal law enforcement inspectors, officers, and special agents whom the 25 Government intends to call at trial and disclose information favorable to the defense that meets the 26 appropriate standard of materiality. United States v. Booth, 309 F.3d 566, 574 (9th Cir. 2002) (citing 27 United States v. Jennings, 960 F.2d 1488, 1489 (9th Cir. 1992). If the undersigned Assistant U.S.
28 Attorney is uncertain whether certain incriminating information in the personnel files is "material," the 1 information will be submitted to the Court for an in camera inspection and review.

2 (F) Jencks Act Material

3 Rule 26.2 incorporates the Jencks Act, 18 U.S.C. §3500, into the Federal Rules of Criminal 4 Procedure. The Jencks Act requires that, after a Government witness has testified on direct examination, 5 the Government must give the Defendant any “statement” (as defined by the Jencks Act) in the 6 Government’s possession that was made by the witness relating to the subject matter to which the 7 witness testified. 18 U.S.C. §3500(b). For purposes of the Jencks Act, a “statement” is (1) a written 8 statement made by the witness and signed or otherwise adopted or approved by her, (2) a substantially 9 verbatim, contemporaneously recorded transcription of the witness's oral statement, or (3) a statement 10 by the witness before a grand jury. 18 U.S.C. §3500(e). If notes are read back to a witness to see 11 whether or not the government agent correctly understood what the witness was saying, that act
 12 constitutes “adoption by the witness” for purposes of the Jencks Act. United States v. Boshell, 952 F.2d 13 1101, 1105 (9th Cir. 1991) (citing Goldberg v. United States, 425 U.S. 94, 98 (1976)). There is no 14 applicable Jencks material at this time. If the case proceeds to trial, the Government will produce any 15 materials covered by the Jencks Act relevant to the testifying witness(es).

16 (G) Disclosure Concerning Informants and Percipient Witnesses

17 An agreement that the Government makes with a witness for testimony in exchange for money 18 or in exchange for favorable treatment in the criminal justice system is generally subject to disclosure
 19 as impeachment evidence under Brady and Giglio. See United States v. Kojayan, 8 F.3d 1315, 1322-23
 20 (9th Cir. 1993); Benn v. Lambert, 238 F.3d 1040, 1054-60 (9th Cir. 2002). The Government is not 21 aware of any Giglio information related to this case. If the Government discovers the existence of 22 Giglio information, the information will be provided to the Defendant.

23 (H) Other Exculpatory Evidence

24 The Government will perform its duty under Brady v. Maryland, 373 U.S. 83 (1963) to disclose 25 material exculpatory information or evidence favorable to Defendant when such evidence is material 26 to guilt or punishment. The Government recognizes that its obligation under Brady covers not only 27 exculpatory evidence, but also evidence that could be used to impeach witnesses who testify on behalf 28 of the United States. See Giglio v. United States, 405 U.S. 150, 154 (1972); United States v. Bagley, 473 U.S. 667, 676-77 (1985). This obligation also extends to evidence that was not requested by the defense. Bagley, 473 U.S. at 682; United States v. Agurs, 427 U.S. 97, 107-10 (1976). “Evidence is material, and must be disclosed (pursuant to Brady), ‘if there is a reasonable probability that, had the evidence been disclosed to the defense, the result of the proceeding would have been different.’” Carriger v. Stewart, 132 F.3d 463, 479 (9th Cir. 1997) (en banc). The final determination of materiality is based on the “suppressed evidence considered collectively, not item by item.” Kyles v. Whitley, 514 U.S. 419, 436-37 (1995).

Brady does not, however, mandate that the Government open all of its files for discovery. See United States v. Henke, 222 F.3d 633, 642-44 (9th Cir. 2000) (per curiam). Under Brady, the United States is not required to provide: (1) neutral, irrelevant, speculative, or inculpatory evidence (see United States v. Smith, 282 F.3d 758, 770 (9th Cir. 2002)); (2) evidence available to the defendant from other sources (see United States v. Bracy, 67 F.3d 1421, 1428-29 (9th Cir. 1995)); (3) evidence that the defendant already possesses (see United States v. Mikaelian, 168 F.3d 380-389-90 (9th Cir. 1999) amended by 180 F.3d 1091 (9th Cir. 1999)); or (4) evidence that the undersigned Assistant U.S. Attorney could not reasonably be imputed to have knowledge or control over. See United States v. Hanson, 262 F.3d 1217, 1234-35 (11th Cir. 2001). Brady does not require the Government “to create exculpatory evidence that does not exist,” United States v. Sukumolahan, 610 F.2d 685, 687 (9th Cir. 1980), but only requires that it “supply a defendant with exculpatory information of which it is aware.” United States v. Flores, 540 F.2d 432, 438 (9th Cir. 1976).

The Government will provide Defendant with all Brady material that may result in mitigation of Defendant’s sentence. Nevertheless, the Government is not required to provide information bearing on Defendant’s sentence until after Defendant’s conviction or guilty plea and prior to her sentencing date. See United States v. Juvenile Male, 864 F.2d 641, 647 (9th Cir. 1988) (no Brady violation occurs “if the evidence is disclosed to the defendant at a time when the disclosure remains in value”).

III

DEFENDANT’S MOTION FOR LEAVE TO FILE ADDITIONAL MOTIONS

The Government does not object to the granting of leave to file further motions as long as the further motions are based on newly discovered evidence or discovery provided by the Government

1 subsequent to the instant motion at issue.

2 IV

3 CONCLUSION

4 For the foregoing reasons, the Government requests that the Court deny Defendant's motions, 5 except where unopposed.
